

KNOX COUNTY CITIZEN

KCC Photo By JOHN BEUTEL
 Eight-year-old Ethan Whitehair, Darell Sanson's nephew and the youngest member of Safire Sun, was a big hit with the crowd. Ethan's success is even more amazing because he was born with Goldenhar Syndrome, but that has not kept the youngster from doing what he loves most. He has great stage presence and an ear for music. He was featured on "I'm the Little Man."

KCC Photo By JOHN BEUTEL
 It was a hot day, but more than 200 vehicles turned out to participate in the 9th Annual Fredericktown Car Show. Organizers estimate at least 4,000 people attended the event which raised between $7,000 and $9,000 for local charities. The crowd spent the day under tents and umbrellas, drinking cool beverages and enjoying the food prepared by the Fredericktown Community Fire Department. See Page 8 for photos. The event could not take place without the large number of volunteers.

KCC Photo By JOHN BEUTEL
 Darell Sanson, pictured here in the center, appeared with his group, Safire Sun, at the Bluegrass Festival held Saturday in conjunction with the 2009 Fredericktown Car Show. Featured with Sanson were band members, Allie Dible, left, and his daughter, Brittney Sanson Hickey who played guitar. In the background is banjo player, Marty, a long-time member of Darell's band. Other bands that appeared during the festival were: Northwest Territory, Sarah Goslee Reed, and Michael and Carrie Kline.

